

DSC leaders send letter opposing merger with resources agency

Delta Stewardship Council Chairman (DSC) Phil Isenberg and DSC Vice Chairman Randy Fiorini have sent a letter to the Little Hoover Commission opposing the proposed merging of the DSC into the California Natural Resources Agency. The merging is part of Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr.'s reorganization plan. In the letter, Isenberg and Fiorini make the case for maintaining the DSC as an independent state agency. The reasons include potential complications in overseeing compliance with the Delta Plan and concern that the role of the Delta Independent Science Board as a neutral scientific investigative body would be undercut by merging.
